

SALES ACTIVITY

Product selling experience | Manipal BFSI Academy

ACTIVITY SUMMARY

Selected a pen as the product for direct selling.
Created and printed an advertisement poster to attract customers.
Approached around 15–20 people and sold 10 pens.
Location: Near Butti Road.

INVESTMENT

Pens: ₹100
Advertisement poster: ₹20
Total investment: ₹120

RESULT

Pens sold: 10
Reported net profit: ₹53
Some customers declined the offer.

PRODUCT SELECTION & PRICING

A simple, useful product with an affordable price

WHY A PEN?

Useful for everyday writing.
Affordable and easy to carry.
Suitable for a wide range of customers.
Easy to demonstrate during direct selling.

PRICING STRATEGY

Cost price was ₹10 per pen; selling prices varied across sales.

-Mr. Pawan Bhoyar

MY MARKETING STRATEGY

A creative idea to support direct selling

ADVERTISEMENT POSTER

Designed an advertisement poster for the pen.

Printed the poster at a cost of ₹20.

Used the poster to attract attention and introduce the product.

Approached potential customers and explained the offer.

The poster supported my sales efforts and helped me sell 10 pens.

-Mr. Pawan Bhoyar

SALES ACTIVITCUSTOMER INTERACTION & SALES

Direct selling in a real-world setting

SALES APPROACH

Introduced the pen and explained its usefulness.
Approached approximately 15–20 people.

-Mr. Pawan Bhoyar

CHALLENGES & SOLUTIONS

Learning to respond positively to customer feedback

CHALLENGES

Some customers rejected the offer.

It was important to gain customer attention.

Explaining the product clearly was necessary.

Not every interaction resulted in a sale.

-Mr. Pawan Bhoyar

FINANCIAL ANALYSIS & KEY LEARNINGS

A practical introduction to cost, sales, and customer handling

FINANCIAL SUMMARY

Pen investment: ₹100

Poster cost: ₹20

Total investment: ₹120

Reported net profit: ₹53

Net ROI: 44.2% ($₹53 \div ₹120$)

-Mr. Pawan Bhoyar

THANK YOU

Every rejection is a step closer to a successful sale.

Presented by Mr. Pawan Bhoyar | Manipal BFSI Academy
